MINISTRY OF WELCOME

Saint Paul instructed the assembled community to "Welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you" (Romans 15:7).

This is a very valuable, and essential Ministry in our parish community.

Welcomers exercise the Ministry of Welcome by greeting members of our congregation as they assemble to celebrate the Mass together as the People of God. These may be regular parishioners, newcomers or visitors coming to join in our parish celebration.

Welcomers represent St Margaret's parish family as they give out mass books, hymn books, and other items for the celebration eg, prayer cards, special hymn sheets.

Welcomers also act as a source of information e.g. requests for various forms on display in the porch, repository, mass cards and intention envelopes, newsletters, notices on boards, who's who in the parish.

We need some more of you to join in the rota of Welcomers for Sunday masses.

It does not take up much time, 15 minutes before the start of mass. Adults can have their children to help, which children seem to enjoy.

How about trying it out? We need you now! Talk to one of the welcomers about helping. You can email the Parish Office carshaltonbeeches@rcaos.org.uk to ask Shirley to put you on the next rota, so step in to fill a gap, if you can.
